Upcoming Events

5/20: Theology on Tap: Join us for fellowship and informal topical discussion on May 20th, 6:00 p.m. at Chili's (E. 3rd St.). Discussion will focus on America's civil religion (www.missionalliance.org/four-things-need-know-american-civil-religion). For more information contact Paul Rothrock at prothrock73@gmail.com.

5/22: The Fiber Arts Group (knitters, crocheters, weavers, spinners, quilters, cross-stitchers, sew-ers, et al.) meets the second Monday of each month from 1:30-4:30 p.m., and on the fourth Wednesday of each month from 6:30-8:00 p.m. in the parlor. New members are welcome. Contact Sue Connell, (812) 339-8768, or suerconnell@gmail.com for information.

5/26: FPC Book Group meets at 7:00 p.m. in the downstairs activity room in the main building at the Bell Trace Retirement Community off of East 10th Street. This month's book by Amor Towles is Rules of Civility.

The First Presbyterian ramp builders who serve Area 10 are in great need of some energetic new volunteers. You do not need to design the ramps, just show up with your hammer. Ramps are built on a flexible schedule as volunteers are available. If you can help with this important ministry, please contact Jack Peterman (812)323-7823 or John Connell at drjohncon@yahoo.com.

Summer Volunteering at Shalom Community Center for those experiencing poverty or homelessness– Kitchen assistants (minimum age is 14) and hospitality desk hosts (minimum age is 21) are needed. New volunteer orientation is on May 30. Learn more at <http://bit.ly/ShalomCenterVolunteering>.

The office will have reduced hours while Karla is on vacation.
Open hours will be 9:00 a.m. - Noon, May 31, June 3, 5, 7, 10 & 14.

FPC donated 62 pounds of groceries to MCUM last week!

Please submit all bulletin items by Thursday at 12:00 p.m. Bulletins are printed on Thursday afternoons. Announcements may be edited for space as necessary.
